

ADVISORY FOR PASSENGERS TRAVELLING TO YELLOW FEVER ENDEMIC COUNTRIES

1. Yellow fever disease is considered as a disease of public health significance by Government of India.
2. Considering the susceptibility and severity of disease in Indian population All passengers who are travelling to Yellow fever endemic countries are advised to take YF vaccination 10 days before their scheduled arrival in the Yellow Fever endemic Country
3. The Yellow fever vaccination should be received from a Yellow fever vaccination center designated by Directorate General of Health Services, MOHFW, Govt/ of India (list can be seen on the MOHFW website) Please ensure that
 - All the columns in the vaccination certificate have been filled correctly.
 - All the entries related to passenger's personal information like Name, Date of birth, Sex, Passport number, Nationality should be filled correctly as seen in their passport and the same has to be attested by the passenger himself with his/her Signature.
 - The entries related to name of disease, Batch No. of vaccine, date of vaccination, signature and professional status of vaccinator, should be filled correctly and the official seal of vaccination centre should be affixed on the vaccination certificate.
 - Date of vaccination should be in proper format i.e. Date-Name of Month-Year (23rd September 2012) as advised by WHO.
 - The validity of Yellow Fever Vaccination Certificate starts 10 days after receiving Yellow Fever Vaccination dose.
 - The signature of the passenger on the certificate may be cross verified with the signature in the passport.