

PHARMACY

PHARMACIST

1. Compounding and dispensing prescriptions according to the hospital formulary or prescriptions of doctors in the hospital.
2. Being responsible for initiating the indents, storage and maintenance of stocks and accounting of medical supplies and appliances under his charge.
3. Providing first-aid to the injured and repeat prescriptions of physicians when ordered.
4. Compiling statistics of hospital in accordance with the instructions of the hospital authorities.
5. Attending to the work of the clinical side room and doing the routine tests of urine, faeces and blood, provided, he has undergone adequate training.
6. Performing such other duties as may be assigned by the hospital authorities.